the intention to start a company on the 12th of May. By order of the Committee.

W. D. HOLMHOOK, Secy.

Waukesha, April 29, 1856.

News of the Morning.

It will be seen by our paper this morning that the Free State men in Kansas denounce the shooting of Sheriff Jones, as a cowardly attempt at assassination, and will spare no pains to apprehend and convict the offender. They have thus set a good example to the "Border Ruffians,"— Jones is likely to recover.

We have conflicting accounts of the last battle in Neosho. Walker's organ claims a victory for the Freeholders. Other accounts report that the Costa Ricans won the day. The battle was a bloody one and fiercely contested.

The Republicans of Indiana have taken the field for their approaching State election with a strong ticket.

Navigatioon is now fairly established on all our inland seas, Buffalo harbor being open and vessels and propellers having passed through the Well canal into Lake Erie.

The New York market of yesterday exhibits more firmness and a slight advance in some articles.

Another graphic letter from our European correspondent is concluded this morning:

A very interesting letter on the subject of our Milwaukee Rail Roads, with a glance at the system of roads centering in our city, will be found in today's paper.

See our Local and Advertising columns for a variety of business notices and news items.

INSTITUTE FOR Railroads.

We learn from Washington that the Committee of the House of Representatives, having charge of the subject, have agreed to report a bill making a grant of land to the State of Wisconsin in aid of three railroads—one, commanding the Wisconsin River to Lake Superior; and Beloit R. R., a line connecting which with Milwaukee and Beloit R. R., would, and will, give on connection with the whole system of railroads of Central Illinois, with a full share of whatever advantages they give to any place.

At the lakes of Grand Haven, the steamer operates the city, there is not now a better one on the whole line of lakes, and whatever more is needed can be supplied at small cost. It is a peculiar feature of that and other ports on the Eastern Shore, that, over the shallow water of the bar, there is a fine deep harbor, almost a lake, inside.

The lines laid out on the Map alluded to by Mr. Marshall, consist of the present roads to Buffalo from the Atlantic, the Great Western (Canada) to London, from London to Port St.
John, and from Huron, opposite Sarnia, to Grand Haven on Lake Michigan, and thence to this city, through Food du Lac to Lake Superior—to Milwaukee—Prairie du Chien—Duluth—Superior and to Sarnia, the latter being the Milwaukee and Beloit R. R., would, and will,

give on connection with the whole system of
railroads of Central Illinois, with a full share of whatever advantages they give to any place.

To the lakes of Grand Haven, the steamer operates the city, there is not now a better one on the whole line of lakes, and whatever more
is needed can be supplied at small cost. It is a peculiar feature of that and other ports on the Eastern Shore, that, over the shallow water
of the bar, there is a fine deep harbor, almost a lake, inside.

This subject commands its own neighbors in Michigan, particularly, who are engaged in conducting the Detroit and Milwaukee, and who are taking up the Fort Huron community, and doing too little, we fear. They ought, and we hope will, be ready to meet us at Grand Haven, when we shall bring travel and freight to them beyond the Mississippi.

A few words may not be amiss here as to what progress we are making with roads diverging from this city. It will serve to show who, like Mr. Marshall, look like ward with a friendly interest, that we are not idle.

We have then, Northeast:

The Lake Cross and Milwaukee, finished to Beaver Dam, 20 miles, and contracted to Portage City.

The Milwaukee and Hoitton, diverging northwestwardly from the last at Holton, 50 miles out, towards Stevens Point, completed to Wausau 18 miles, and to be finished to Berlin this fall.

The northern section of the Chicago, St. Paul and Food du Lac R. crosses the last two, and is completed, giving us connection with the thriving city of Food du Lac, and will be extended to Oshkosh at an early day, at the point where the Wolf river enters Lake Winnebago.

The Milwaukee and Waterton, completed to Waterton, 45 miles, under contract to Columbus, 18 miles further, and just now consolidated with the Watertown and Madison, and to be completed some 20 miles in the direction of Medi-son this summer.

The Milwaukee and Mississippi, completed 115 miles, or some 15 miles beyond Madison, and concluded to reach Prairie du Chien in November next.

At Milwauke, 62 miles out, this road diverges and is finished 3 miles to Janesville, and contracted 25 miles south-westward to Monroe, and going through at an early day to the Mississipi at Dubuque.

South-Westward:

The Lake Cross and Milwaukee, finished to Beaver Dam, 20 miles, and contracted to Portage City.

The Milwaukee and Beloit, now organized, and with the best of feeling interested in pushing forward; to pass through the central part of Wisconsin, and to remain here before those honest citizens of this country for a longer term than at present?

Assured by Gov. Atkin, (Democratic candidate for Speaker), that the new bill will become a law. The policy of Land Grants to Railroads, or other private corporations, he hold to be most mischievous. But to offer such a tempting prize to be fought for by some half a dozen rival companies and scores of speculating Directors, would make the game more corruption, infamy and fraud, in our elections and legislation, than has yet been seen in any State of the Union.
We entreat Congress therefore to send us no such fatal present.

THE CALCULATIONS OF THE SOUTH.

We invite the attention of our readers to the letter which we copy this morning from a Charleston (South Carolina) paper. It shows how current and dexterous the Slave Power is, in its strategy in its proceedings, and how confident of success. We have no desire to magnify, or misrepresent the doings of the Slave Propagandists, or the extremity of the danger which threatens Kansas. But it is impossible to resist the conviction that unless the North maintains a stern and united front on this momentous issue, Kansas is lost to Freedom and Slavery becomes the controlling power of our Republic. Let the Freedoms of the North-West do their part to aver-sue a calamity!

THE NEWS CHOPPING LOGIC.

The Ages of Saturday continue, at great length, its labored efforts to prove that Gov.
Atkins, the K. N. and Democratic candidate for Speaker, when he avowed his readiness to go to the House of Representatives, had what he said.

We cannot resist the temptation to give our readers a specimen of the way in which the Ages attempts to make out its case. We republish, first, the question put to Gov. Atkins, by the K. N. Plenipotentiary, and the satisfactory answer of the former:

Question by A. K. Marshall, (K. N. Representative from Kentucky):

Would you object to such a constitution of our national law, as would require citizens to swear to remain here before those honest citizens of this country for a longer term
than at present?

Answer by Gov. Atkin, (Democratic candidate for Speaker):

I would not object to, but would favor a more rigid extension of our naturalization law.

That seems plain enough. The Governor agrees with the K. N.'s in their notion that foreigners should be required to live more than five years in the U. S. before being admitted to the rights and privileges of citizenship. In return, the K. N.'s vote for the Governor. And so the Democrats, notwithstanding their known Nothing provident, now ask for such a constitution of our national law, as would require citizens
to swear to remain here before those
honest citizens of this country for a longer term
than at present?

date for Speaker):

CITY MATTERS.

POLICE COURT, MAY 3.

BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH, POLICE JUSTICE.

Thomas McNaughton, Louis H. Kewell and Peter Waller were charged with an attempt to commit murder.

Oscar Kewell was tried upon a charge of assault and battery upon Magdalene Stronger, found not guilty and discharged.

James McNaughton was brought in by Constable Sherrill of the 1st Ward, charged with assault and battery, on Patrick McDonald; he was found guilty and fined $5.00, the lowest that the statute permits.

THEATRE.—THORNE'S STAR COMPANY.—The Manager offers a very attractive bill to the patrons of the Theatre this evening. It embraces two popular plays, "The Merchant of Venice," and "As You Like It," both well and elegantly acted, and with the full strength of the Company. Intermission through both pieces will be given for songs, duets and choruses, which will be well given to sing. The performances will commence at 8 o'clock.

A DANGEROUS DOG.—A few days since, as a lady and gentleman were riding on horseback, along East Water Street, a large dog dashed into the street and seized the stirrup of the lady's riding-hat, tearing a portion of it into shreds. The dog was captured and turned over to us to have it destroyed. We understand it has already been turned over to the police, who will be given to sing. The performances will commence at 8 o'clock.

CAN SHOP FOR SALE.—A capital opportunity is offered for some to make money by purchasing the Waukesha Car Shop, where have been built most of the freight cars used in the business of the Lake Shore & Michigan, the Duke of York, and the Milwaukee & St. Paul. The building is well equipped, and with a large amount of rolling stock for the summer business.

FOR BREWERY.—The Proprietor Brewsterick, Captain F. Howard, will leave the field of Milwaukee this morning, for Boston and intermediate ports. For a passage apply to John G. Blair, near the American ex. Office.

DAIRY FOR SALE.—Mr. Anthony, proprietor of the "Vanderbilt," having had attacks with a Kanawha cow, desires to rent out his establishment. A good chance for somebody.
